I. INTRODUCTION

This is the story of a beautiful girl whose beauty is of no match. Her famed beauty gets the attention of the King of Romance who soon becomes obsessed with her and severe the relationship because of his neurotic behavior. It finally tells the solution for the girl to come out of this mess and emerge as a winner.

II. STALKING

This is how the King stalks the beautiful Princess in the hope that she will accept him one day and become his Queen. Here is the list of incidents that the Princess went through:

1. Fire Crackers and Rockets: Whenever he feels that she is ignoring him and when he wants her attention, he lights fire crackers outside her house. Not only that, he has purchased a house near her residence and fires rockets in the sky at night daily. Being a King he has no shortage of money. So he can easily purchase a house without any trouble.
2. Car Horns: He blows horns outside her house to give a reaction to her routine activities. If he likes the things that she does at home or at workplace, he blows horn outside her house as a sign of appreciation. But if he not only likes the activity that she is doing but is ecstatic about it, he plays songs in his car outside her house. Each horn has a meaning. The length of the horn may vary depending upon his feelings. Sympathy, sadness, happiness or confusion, each has a separate horn length.
3. Prank Messages: To sustain the relationship, he sends her Vodafone messages. If not Vodafone messages, he sends her astrology Axis Bank or other prank messages to appreciate her contribution in the relationship.
4. Bus with Posters: He doesn't directly talk to her because her father doesn't accept him because he dislikes him. So he has his own means to communicate with her in a way that even if she complains to her father about him, her father won't believe her. This way he will save himself from the abuses from her father.

He is rich being a King. So he sends Buses whenever she goes outside her house with posters as messages for her. If he doesn't like anything about her like her education, he sends promotional posters on the buses related to various streams that she can take like Company Secretary, B.Com, etc.

5. Goods carrying trucks: When in anger, she says something to someone or whenever she becomes part of a major controversy that anticipates punishment by law, he sends goods carrying trucks whenever she goes out to tell her that she should run away from house because she may get notice from her enemies. He never directly tells her this because of the fear of her father and because this relationship will ruin his image since he has many followers being a King.
6. Sending Ambulances: After all this stalking, she decides to leave him. Unable to face the rejection, he wants to destroy her emotionally. So he indulges in sexual activity to ease the pain. He has sex with her close friends and relatives. Being King of Romance, nobody refuses his sex offers. After that he sends ambulances whenever she heads to her workplace to show her that he still has the upper hand even after being rejected from her.
7. Advertisements on TV: To tell her how many times he had sex with her friends or relatives, he shows ads on TV. These ads contain numbers with initials of her friend's names to tell her he had sex with them this many times. Not only on TV, he makes ads on facebook, twitter and other sites she goes to on internet like Yahoo to give her the exact figures and digits.
8. Mind Reading: He reads her mind to have a look at all her fears so that he can realize them because she left him. He gives a hint to her by firing rockets or sending instantaneous prank messages on her mobile whenever she thinks of something to tell her that this is the fear that he will realize.
9. Hacking and Tapping: He has hacked all her electronic devices to be aware of all the activities she does on the computer. He also taps her phone to see who she talks to or contacts throughout the course of the day. He executes extreme control tactics even though it is illegal because of anxiety. He thinks just one sided and considers her the only solution of his excruciating pain.
10. Seeing through satellites: He delegates work to his men and tells them to have a check on her through satellites to monitor all her daily activities to see whether she is where she is supposed to be. He wants to see who she meets or talks to. He wants to know whether her relation with others is strictly professional or not. This way he becomes neurotic and becomes a psychopath. He still thinks his bizarre behavior is completely normal and labels his deadly obsession as true love.

11. Replicas of Partners: He used to work for 18 hours a day. But after he discovered her, all he thinks about is her. His direction of hard work which he did professionally shifted to her. Whenever she goes outside to have a ride on active to get some fresh air, he sends the replicas of his exes to make her aware about what they are doing behind her back. He himself had sex with her ex 80 times to take revenge from her because she rejected him.
12. There were days when she gets completely fed up of all the stalking and she runs away from her house to protest on roads or to the parks nearby, he sends some men to have sex with her to calm her down. When she indulges in sexual activity in public, he tapes it and blackmails her that he will ruin her image.
13. Not only this, when she confessed her desires for other people, he immediately became insecure and paid people on roads to abuse her. When she is angry at him and abuses his family, he considers it his right to abuse her back instead of taking her constructive criticism seriously.
14. Whenever she goes to the gym and feels attraction for other men and starts fantasizing them at night, he considers it his duty to tell them about her feelings so that when she goes the next day, it becomes extremely awkward that she doesn't know how to deal with it. So she had to leave the gym. He also pays men at the gym to stare at her to reassure her of her beauty.
15. Finally after seeing all his efforts, she searched for his number and called him to know what he wants from her, he instead of attending her calls nicely started abusing her because it would ruin his image if his colleagues know about the relationship because he is already married to someone else.
16. He has no shame and no conscience. He sees her in bathrooms to see if she is masturbating or not. He thinks it is completely normal and attributes him seeing her naked in bathrooms as husband wife relation. Not only this, he sees her family members naked in bathrooms through cameras and satellites and says that he is a God and nothing can be hidden from him.
17. He had sex with all his colleagues, her classmates, exes and her relatives. He has sex with his wife every month. When she asks him to have sex with her, he comes up with an excuse and says that she should remain pure because people relate to her. He thinks it is completely normal for him to have sex everyday and questions her purity when she wants to have it. He also tortures her by making arrangements for his friends to have sex with all her exes.

18. Shayari: He writes poetry on her. He insults her family members in his poetry. This is the only good activity he does. He wants to make a good impression on people and wants to show people how devoted he is to the Princess but in fact he is just the opposite. He is a fake and drama person whose words and actions never match. He says that he loves her but acts diametrically opposite.
19. When she achieves something, he distributes the pamphlet of pizza hut, burgers and sends Pepsi trucks to her to celebrate with him. He never pays for anything and he thinks that he is being nice when he is the last person she wants to see.
20. He tampers the internet connection when it is most needed. He removes pictures from her website and slows down the internet connection at her workplace leaving her frustrated and irritated. He does it on a regular basis.

III. SOLUTION

1. If we think of something that makes us cry, we obviously should do an activity that keeps us involved. This way we will not entertain the negative thoughts.
2. Inactivity is the best form of de-gripping. The best way is to lie down. This way we can detach negative thoughts easily.
3. We should take medications for tension and depression and should not hesitate only because it is embarrassing to share our feelings.
4. To avoid a mental breakdown, we must write our thoughts down on a piece of paper and rationalize it. Chat Sessions with experts also helps.
5. We must realize that we are all one of a kind and each has his own set. Usually when we reach to the top at something, we have no one to relate to because now we have our own identity. We must realize that each successful person has the same story and it doesn't mean that we are God. This way loneliness feeling will go away.
6. Whenever we feel empty, we must invest in ourselves and develop a hobby. We can also invest in ourselves by exercising and going to the gym.
7. The best way to deal with such stalkers is to marry someone superior to them. If he is a King, then marry an Emperor. This way, you will emerge out as a winner and they will lose from all directions.
